ClearEdge Supports MDI's Evolution to "MDI Group"
Helps MDI Group mark its 20th anniversary with a new brand identity and focus

Chicago, IL (July 22, 2008)—ClearEdge Marketing, a firm specializing in outsourced marketing solutions for professional services firms, partnered with MDI Group (formerly MDI), one of the nation's top professional service firms, to mark its 20th anniversary with a new brand identity, focus and Web site (www.mdigroup.com).

ClearEdge collaborated with MDI Group's internal marketing staff to reframe its go-to-market message strategy and evolve the brand. The brand now represents the company's growth from an IT staffing firm focused on metro Atlanta to a $70 million company providing a range of solutions to clients nationwide in information technology and in finance and accounting. The effort also included a new logo, Web site and marketing collateral.

"ClearEdge's reputation and industry expertise led to our selection of the firm to help MDI refresh its brand," commented Brad Mencher, strategic vice president. "The new brand builds on the company's historical success, provides a foundation for future growth and reflects a forward-thinking, creative organization—all qualities that have enabled MDI to consistently deliver outstanding service to its clients and consultants. We couldn't be happier with the outcome."

According to ClearEdge Marketing President and Founder, Leslie Vickrey, "We're proud to have offered our support to MDI Group during their brand evolution. This initiative ensures they have a clear, strong message platform they can build upon for years to come."
